"Last of the Red Hot Lovers"

Barney Cashma, the owner of the successful seafood restaurant is stuck in the depths of a mid life crisis.

Barney's marriage is no longer providing him with a sense of romantic adventure, and when he discovers his mother's apartment is empty one day a week, he decides that a series of extra-marital affairs is just what he needs

However, Barney's career as a spoiler of women does not always quite match his hopes.....

HAVANT DYNAMO YOUTH THEATRE CLOSER TO GETTING OUR NEW HOME.....

We moved a step closer to securing a new home when Dynamo's Trustees and Committee voted to accept the terms of a long term agreement negotiated with St Faiths Church on the hire of the Church Hall. Although not yet fully completed, a letter of intent has been sent to the Church and we are confident that the agreement will be signed shortly.

Artistic Director Andrew Bowker and the Committee are looking forward to the move from The Spring and to the challenge of modifying the hall into a permanent home for Dynamo while improving facilities for existing other hirers.

MEMBERS CONTINUE TO PERFORM

The performances are not just saved for Dynamo and its audiences.

Dynamo members Joe Reynolds, Ben Watts and Jay Jupe, continued to wow the audience at this years Madd@TheFort 2010.

Joe & Ben's band, the award winning "Frontline" opened the event with their covers of "Stacey's Mom" and "Worried about Ray".

Jay sung two songs "Stan the ARP Man" from Bombed Out and "Stars" from Les Miserable to rousing applause in the afternoon session.

During May, the DYT cupboard at The Spring was dismantled, sorted and relocated upstairs.

Dynamo was one of 40 community organisations in the South East to be awarded a laptop and a year's broadband internet connection from BT.

Denise Westbury Haines, BT project director and chair of the South East judging panel, said: 'It is great to know these awards will open doors to a whole new digital world for community and voluntary organisations.'

One grey dreary Sunday in May
Volunteers came to sort out the cupboard
They took one look and fainted away
Plans were inevitably scuppered

One glorious hot Sunday in May
(Temperatures less Havant, more Laos)
Sun shining, we tried to make hay
But instead we created more chaos

One Bank Holiday weekend in May
Strong arms shifted mountains of boxes
The result, we're delighted to say:
A new home for our propses and frockses!

THE LIZ GOODBODY SHIELD 2010

A packed St. Faiths hall was treated to another great shield evening. The 7 shield teams each provided an 8 minute play incorporating accent and a back in time theme.

The winning piece directed by Rosie Dempsey was 'Dodo-volution', second was Bexx Williams with "1920" and joint third were Abi Jeffery with "Step into mind" and Harry Atlee with "The 15th Annual International Cooking Championship"

Well done to all of the directors involved, especially those who's pieces did not win but entertained us on the night, Conor Wickham, Sam Chilcott and Alice Mayhead.

DYNAMO'S UPPER AGE GROUP TAKES TO THE BOARDS

Havant Dynamo Youth Theatre took another step towards it's goal of providing a performance based centre for local people aged 7 - 25.

February of this year saw the Theatre officially launch its 18 - 25 year group "Dynasty" when five ex Dynamo members got together. Membership is automatically open to any Dynamo member who receives their leavers certificate with non-Dynamo applicants required to pass an audition.

The group are currently rehearsing on a Monday & Thursday for their first show "Bouncers"

The ethos of the group is to be a self supporting arm of the main company, giving the members a taste of running theatre troupe.

The group recently ran a successful workshop for Dynamo members, enabling them to hand down some of their vast experience, to the younger members.

If you are aged between 18 & 24 and would like more information about joining Dynasty Theatre as either a performer or as part of the technical crew contact Callum West on 07521 744390

JERUSALEM

Dynamo singers feature in the sound track of the West End production of 'Jerusalem' at the Apollo Theatre. The recording was made at St Faith's Hall last year.

The project came about when Val Bird's son in law Ian Dickenson, contacted Andrew to see if Dynamo would be interested in being involved. The cast were assembled and given the words in the morning and Ian arrived about 4pm to do the recording, which was achieved in one take.

The show which previewed at the Royal Court, London on 10/07/2009 and ran until the end of April 2010 is now on the Broadway stage.

Havant Dynamo are included in the programme as 'Distant Voices'. As the show was first performed at the Royal Court theatre DYT will always be mentioned in the programme, where ever it is performed.

SET CONSTRUCTION

As a recently new parent to Dynamo I've helped (to varying degrees!) on set construction for the last few productions and would encourage anyone to come and help out.

Given how basic my skills are I did wonder just how much use I would be, but having been a few times now I can confirm people are needed not skill!

You don't need to be a proficient carpenter or DIY'er - just able to hold a hammer or saw and measure up bits of wood. You can do as much or as little as you like and you can either work with someone else who knows the ropes or have a go at making something on your own.

There are design drawings by Joe to follow and always some friendly guidance on how to make your masterpiece. What could possibly go wrong? Yes, OK, it might not be quite right first time round but a good sense of humour will sort it out.

It's a great way to meet others in Dynamo and it does provide a real sense of achievement as you start to see yet another set take shape. But the best thing, of course, is watching a Dynamo production knowing you've helped it along the way.
